At Today's Services:

Collect for the Day

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all; govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart
by the ravages of war,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and forever

Post Communion Prayer

O God of truth and justice, in this Eucharist which we have shared we hold before you
those whose memories we cherish and those whose names
we will never know.
Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm.
As we honour the past,
may we put our faith in your future;
for you are the source of life and hope,
now and forever

Prayers for those in special need

Sometimes we receive requests for prayerful support for those who are ill, or at some particular crisis in their lives. We do pray for these, in the Intercessions on Sunday mornings.

We would like to be sure that we know who needs this support. There may be people who would prefer not to be named publicly. Others will prefer to know that they are supported by the community, and will be happy to be named in the services. Even in this case, we will not use surnames unless we have permission to do that. As a community we also like to remember those recently deceased on the anniversary of their death, or their birthday. So if you have anyone you would like to hear mentioned in this way, again please let us know. This may also include those who have recently died. Here we especially remember Ted White, his family and friends.

We are asked to pray for Thelma, Jack, Brenda, Betty, Neil, Anne, Ronnie, Gracie, Judith, Sally Madden, Mark, Eli, Rob, Jean, Kirsty, Carole and those supporting them.

These will be named in the notice sheet each week. Please pray for these, and let Sarah or one of the churchwardens know of others.

Christian Action for the Environment

With worsening climate change, loss of species, plastic and other pollution, food waste and much else there is a real need for Christians to bring their God-given vision of care for creation into the debate and together to take action to care for the environment.

Together, Christians in BANES can make a massive difference. That's why some Christians in the area are looking to establish BANES Christian Action for the Environment (BANES CAFE) to enable us to reflect theologically on these issues, to bring Christians together to care for creation, to support local churches in getting this on their agenda and to challenge people in power to make creation care a central issue.

An inaugural meeting will be held on WEDNESDAY 21 NOVEMBER at 7.30p.m. at the Claremont Centre of Nexus Methodist Church, Eastbourne Avenue, Bath BA1 6EN.

If you would like more information please contact Rev Ian Souter 01761 433251 or souterfam@aol.com. Please come along and see what we might do together.
