

Invitation

“Remember, the past, know the present, trust the future” (Aba Kovner)

Monday, 16.5.22, at 18:00

Save the date!

Friends and Family members of the Association of Former Residents of Kalish and the Vicinity are invited to the Annual Kalish conference 2022.

The conference will focus on family stories.

The conference will take place at “Anu” museum (formerly the Museum of the Jewish Diaspora at Tel Aviv university), at the “Ze’evi” auditorium and its adjacent gallery.

- 18:00 Refreshments & Mingling at the Gallery.
Registration & Fund raising.
- 19:00 Opening words at the “Ze’evi” auditorium
- 19:10 “Yizkor” in memory of Kalisz and vicinity community
“Kadish” recitation
- 19:20 Artistic interlude
- 19:30 Welcome note - Polish embassy
- 19:40 “Family Pictures Odyssey” - Yona Egozi
- 19:55 Movie: “The Last Letter” - Bat Ami Yalin
- 20:15 Artistic interlude
- 20:20 “Kalisz nowadays, a Contemporary review” - Halina
Marcinkowska
- 20:30 Associaton annual activities review - Tchiya Sofer
- 20:40 Mingling and Q&A

Joseph Komem
052-3281643
jkomem@bezeqint.net

Yona Egozi
054-4982492
avihaye@gmail.com

Bat Ami Yalin
03-7311629
batami10@gmail.com

Noam Katzir
054-7770195
noamkatzir29@gmail.com

Tchiya Sofer
050-6288960
thiaz@gmail.com

איך להגיע?

Getting here

ANU – Museum of the Jewish People is located on the campus of Tel Aviv University, Klausner Street, in Ramat Aviv.

Entrance through Matatia Gate 2.

ANU – Museum of the Jewish People is easily accessible from the Ayalon Highway.

Paid parking

Museum Parking lot, Klausner Street, across from Gate 2

- On Saturdays/holidays, parking is only allowed on Klausner St. outside campus; entering the museum via Gate no. 2 only.
- For Handicap accessibility information please call Dan Barlev 03-745-7832

Public transportation

By bus

Egged: 271, 222, 572

Dan: 7, 25, 289, 45

By train

The closest railway station to the Museum is “Tel-Aviv University”

Connections via Dan bus lines 7, 45