Renowned Equitation instructor Gayle Lampe returns to Desert Palms in 2016 and will be available for riding instruction on Thursday, Feb. 18 and Saturday, Feb. 20. Gayle Lampe is a national and international leader in equestrian science as an instructor, coach, trainer, judge and rider. For 42 years, she has been an instrumental force in William Woods University's nationally acclaimed equestrian studies division, where she participated in the development of the country's first four-year academic degree program in equestrian science. She has judged horse shows in 43 states, as well as Canada, England, South Africa and Australia. and has conducted clinics in 19 states and 3 foreign countries. She has conducted the USEF Judges' clinics for Applicants, Saddle Seat Equitation, Saddlebred Horses, and National Show Horses for the last four years. She has trained several William Woods horses to world and national championships and in 1996, she coached the United States to a gold medal in team and individual competition at the first-ever Saddle Seat Equitation World Cup. She personally won a national championship at the Morgan Grand National Horse Show in 1983 on Zephyr's King Moro. In August 2003, she won the Ladies Five-Gaited World's Championship at the Kentucky State Fair on her own American Saddlebred, Callaway's Born to Win. She won the Ladies Five-Gaited Championship at the UPHA American Royal National Championship Horse show in 2003, 2005, 2007, 2008 and 2009 with Born to Win and was the Ladies Five-Gaited Reserve World's Champion in 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2009. She won the Ladies Five-Gaited Gelding World's Champion title in 2009, again with Born to Win. In 2007, Gayle and Born To Win won 13 classes including the Ladies Five Gaited Championship at Lexington Junior League Horse and the inaugural Pink Ribbon Class (benefiting research for the cure for breast cancer) which was the Ladies Five Gaited
